New Children's Book "He Made You Awesome!" Affirms That Every Child Is Wonderfully Made by God

A children's book that celebrates how God intentionally designed every child with unique qualities, helping them understand the truth about who they are, what God loves about them, and the gifts He placed inside them.

Rockwall, Texas — May 19, 2026 — Pamela A. Lapeyrolerie, author of the inspiring new children's book "He Made You Awesome!," announces the release of an uplifting message designed to help children ages 3–7 discover that God made them in the magnificence of His love. Through colorful hand-illustrated artwork by Erin Daugherty, this book shows children how God's, thoughtfulness, created them with distinguishing qualities and enduring characteristics.

From ages 3 to 7, children are forming a sense of who they are, shaped by the words they hear and the love they receive. It offers parents, family members, and educators an invaluable creative expression that nurtures a child's confidence in their God-given design, shaping how they come to realize their worth, belonging, and distinction. The message of "He Made You Awesome" resonates across audiences of all backgrounds, making it an ideal addition to homes, schools, churches, and libraries.

"I wrote He Made You Awesome!, so children know that, regardless of their physical characteristics, God loves and embraces every part of who they are. "Every child should see themselves in the truth of God's love, and this book instills this foundation early in their lives." – Pamela A. Lapeyrolerie
